I. Colby’s Policy on Protest, Rallies and Similar Events
Richard Uchida, Esq. and Dean Karlene came to get SGA’s input on the draft of Colby’s Policy on Protest, Rallies and Similar Events. After it is shored up, it will be put before the College Affairs Committee to be finalized. This policy stresses the use of restorative justice and content neutrality. SGA, along with a few non-SGA members, were able to give input to Mr. Uchida and Dean Karlene regarding the policy. Some concerns that were raised included: The enforcement of sanctions, the definition of “substantially disruptive,” and the vagueness of restorative practices.
